

A message from the Headteacher

Our Inclusion Statement During our January training day we reflected on what does inclusion mean at Holy Trinity? The whole staff worked together to agree a shared inclusion statement which we are proud to share with you.

Inclusion at Trinity nurtures a culture where every child –regardless of their starting point– knows our school is for them. By proactively removing barriers and celebrating our diversity, we ensure all students learn together in a welcoming environment where they are empowered to flourish, achieve, and belong.

Mark Foster LDLT Director of Effectiveness was in school on Wednesday to monitor provision in school for our SEN and target pupils. The feedback was very positive with some excellent examples of embedded practice ensuring our pupils thrive and flourish. Tim Scholes and Christine Rudkin were also in school this week monitoring provision for pupils on our SEN register. Again feedback was positive and highlighted the impact of Mrs Penny (SENDCo), teachers and teaching assistants.

Holocaust Memorial Day 'Bridging Generations'

Our Year 6 pupils were invited to the civic service at Ripon Cathedral to mark Holocaust Memorial Day. Pupils joined members of the Cathedral team and Harrogate Hebrew Congregation to reflect on the holocaust on the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau. Pupils listened to psalms and prayer sung and read in Hebrew and English. I was extremely proud when member of the public commented on the respectful and dignified behaviour of Trinity pupils.

National Story Telling Week Next week, we're diving into our favorite tales to celebrate National Storytelling Week! We'd love for you to join the magic at home. Whether it's a quick chapter or a cozy bedtime story, every page counts. Please share the fun by updating your child's reading record or emailing admin@htceschools.co.uk a photo of your home reading sessions!

Have a wonderful weekend!
